Supreme Court Removes Charlotte From Water War Case

Statement from Attorney General Henry McMaster

Columbia, S.C. – “Today's decision by the Supreme Court is positive progress in South Carolina's fight to protect the future of our water supply, economic prosperity, and quality of life. The City of Charlotte is the largest water consumer along the Catawba River basin and in North Carolina. Their dismissal removes a major legal and political obstacle and will now allow South Carolina's case to move toward resolution before the court.”
